O. M. CARRINGTON WILL BEGIN NEW DUTIES MONDAY

Deputy County Superintendent of Schools O. M. Carrington, will begin his new duties as supervisor of music and drawing in the rural schools of the county next Monday. The new Chevrolet provided by the county for use of the deputy superintendent has arrived. His new duties will take him to every rural school in the county to give instructions and supervise the teaching of music in these schools. The last legislature created the new position which is now being filled by all the county superintendents of the state. The appointment of Mr. Carrington is a very popular one.

"BUSTER" ROUSSELL FRACTURED RIGHT ARM

The first accident to be recorded at the Knights of Columbus gymnasium San Mateo, which is under the personal direction of Gus Johnson, when "Buster" Russell 15-year-old son of Frank Russell of Redwood City, fell from a trapeze and fractured his right arm just below the elbow. According to Johnson, young Russell and a number of boy friends were practicing some new stunts on the bars and trapeze when the accident happened. Russell missed a "flip" and fell to the mat below. It was not known at the time that his arm was broken, although he complained of not being able to move it. Johnson offered to take the boy to the gymnasium doctor, but was informed that Dr. J. L. Ross of Redwood City was a relative of Russell's and that he preferred to go to him. Dr. Ross set the broken bone and is looking after the case. Young Russell will be a freshman at the high school next semester.

PEA GROWERS APPEAL DECISION TO SUPERIOR COURT

L. McGill and E. McGill, pea growers of Halfmoon Bay, have appealed to the Superior Court from a decision recently rendered by Justice of the Peace John Pitcher of Halfmoon Bay in a suit brought against them by the Ocean Shore Canning Company, a corporation.

The canning company, through its attorneys, Ross & Ross, alleged that the defendants had entered into an agreement to raise and deliver for them approximately 6000 cans of shelled peas, which agreement they failed to live up to and sued for $299.99 damages. Justice Pitcher, after hearing the evidence in the case, gave judgment for the plaintiff on June 25. Attorney J. J. Bullock represents the defendants.

JUDGE JOHN H. PITCHER HALE AT NINETY-FOUR

Judge John H. Pitcher of Halfmoon Bay greeted friends in Redwood City yesterday. He is still hale and hearty despite his ninety-fourth year. Last Monday he celebrated the anniversary of his birth by giving a dinner to a few friends. Mr. Pitcher is the highest of age in Indiana 94 years ago. He was filled with the fire of adventure and during the gold rush came to California landing in San Francisco in 1849, going from there to the mines where he met with some success. In 1861 he arrived in Halfmoon Bay where he has resided ever since. For forty years he has been the justice of the peace of the Fourth township, filling the position always with credit to himself and his constituents. Mr. Pitcher bids fair to round out the century mark of his career. He still writes with a steady hand. As a penman he has few equals in the county.

WOODSIDE NOTES

Harry Wadley, an employee of the Pig N'Whistle Candy company of San Francisco, appeared yesterday before Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin at Redwood City on a charge of having violated County Ordinance No. 294, which makes it a misdemeanor to throw debris on the highways of the county. Wadley was cited to appear following a complaint made by Mrs. E. E. Hahn of Woodside, that he had on Sunday last thrown a lunch box, papers and refuse on the highway in front of her property. At the request of Wadley the matter was laid over for two weeks, at which time he indicated he would plead guilty. He desired to consult with other members of the party first, however. County officials are now making an effort to put a stop to the habit of Sunday visitors and others of leaving their papers and rubbish wherever they finish with it.

CANNERY WILL OPEN EARLY NEXT WEEK

The Pratt-Low Preserving company will begin operations at the local plant next Tuesday, starting with canning peaches. The working force is to be 65 men and women. This force will be increased as the peaches ripen and the supply of the fruit becomes sufficient to warrant the plant in running at capacity. When the peach season ends the pear crop will be taken care of by the cannery. It is the hope of the company to continue operations indefinitely. The tomato crop will follow in the fall and after that vegetables will be canned. Next week the cannery will be a scene of activity. A large shipment of choice peaches arrived yesterday. Nearly all the employees are from Redwood City. During the next two months the company is to expend thousands of dollars in wages and supplies.

STEVE MORANDO MET WITH STRANGE ACCIDENT

Steve Morando, a farm hand employed at the home of George A. Leant on the Hooper Road, west of Redwood City, met with rather a strange accident on Wednesday.

Morando had gone out to the barnyard on the place early in the morning to attend to the feeding of some cattle. When he did not return late for breakfast, other workmen went out to look for him and they found the ranch hand lying unconscious in the yard near the barn with blood trickling from a small wound on the top of his head. Lying alongside of the body was a broken pitchfork, which the man had been using in feeding the hay to the cattle. Morando was removed to the Leant house and Dr. Harry Reynolds summoned from Palo Alto.

An examination conducted by the doctor disclosed another sharp wound just at the point of the chin showing where one of the prongs of the fork had entered and had run clean through the man's head, penetrating the brain. Morando was rushed to the Peninsula hospital in Palo Alto, but died a few minutes after he had been placed on the operating table.

Just how the ranch hand received the injury that caused his death has not yet been solved by those who are conducting the investigation of the case. It is believed, however, that Morando slipped in some manner and fell on the prong end of the fork. He was able to withdraw the prong from the wound and apparently was crawling toward the house for help when he became unconscious.

Morando was a native of Italy and was about 38 years of age. He had been employed on the Hooper ranch for about nine months, having come there during the early part of the winter. It is not known that he has any relatives in this vicinity.

GORDON M. SEELY APPOINTED TO A PROMINENT POSITION

Gordon M. Seely, a former Redwood City young man, has been appointed to a splendid position at Tampico, Mexico. He is the English correspondent for a large importing firm. He speaks Spanish fluently. The essentials of his position is his knowledge of English and Spanish for correspondence purposes.

Tampico is a very busy city for it is the center of the great petroleum industry. Millions of barrels of oil are shipped out by tank steamers monthly. Seely says there is a small "revolution" going on down in the State of Vera Cruz, in the oil fields, which was caused by labor unrest and unemployment due to the closing of a number of the large operating oil companies in protest to the new Mexican government export tax on crude oil and petroleum. He does not know where it will end. He says Tampico is over-crowded due to the vast amount of business done there. It is very warm there.

SOME STATISTICS CONCERNING LAND OF SAN MATEO COUNTY

The Official Census Bureau Bulletin of the Fourteenth Census of the United States gives some interesting facts concerning agriculture in California. As the report is given by counties we are reproducing some of the statistics concerning San Mateo county. There are 624 farms. These are conducted by 209 native born whites, 353 foreign born whites and 56 negro or non-white farmers. The area of land under cultivation in 1920 was 286,080 acres, having the following valuation: Land, $18,676,195.00; buildings, $1,538,130.09; live stock, $1,222,772.00; and improvements and machinery, $711,413. The average value of each farm in the county was $29,930; 213 of these farms were conducted by their owners, while the balance were run on shares or rented. The live stock of the county was divided as follows: There were 2469 horses, 4 smulter, 19 asses, 12,010 cattle, 1060 sheep, 100 goats, 8437 hens, 67,258 hens and 161 hives of bees. The products of San Mateo county during the year of 1920 brought the following amounts: Cereals, $2,445,026; Seed grain, 215,349; Hay, 562,482; Vegetables, 1,453,342; Fruits and nuts, 45,191. The above figures will no doubt be surprising to those who have considered San Mateo county a commuters settlement. It shows that not only are we an ideal home county but also that we produce wealth and send out products to other parts of the world.

There appears to be some misunderstanding among certain citizens regarding the housing of a few of the teachers at the new school site. The vacant buildings are being occupied by the principal and a few of the other members of the faculty and they are paying rent for them just the same as any other citizen would do. The idea has gone forth that they are getting them free. This is not so. The trustees collect rent for all occupied buildings on the ground and turn the money into the proper channels.

District Attorney Franklin Swart returned from his annual vacation spent in the wilds of Humboldt county yesterday. He whipped the mountain streams for trout catching the limit almost every day. G. L. Fonda, who has been engaged in the photograph business in this city for many years, has sold his building and business on Main street to S. H. Mason of Palo Alto. Mr. Mason, after making alterations and improvements, will be prepared to give good service in any branch of photography. He intends to carry a full line of photographic supplies.

WILLIAM P. STEVENS APPOINTED TO ANNAPOLIS

William P. Stevens, youngest son of Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Stevens, who made an application two weeks ago to Congressman A. M. Free for admission to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, received the following telegram from Mr. Free at Washington yesterday:

Washington, D. C., July 28, 1921: Wm. P. Stevens, 175 East Jefferson St., Redwood City.—Have nominated you today for Annapolis, please conform to directions which you will receive from Navy Department as promptly as possible in order that you may enter Academy for Fall Term, which you succeed.

A. M. FREE.

Young Stevens is a bright, clever chap who made a record as a student at Sequoia Union high school. He graduated with honors from that institution last June.

He had splendid endorsements from influential men and women throughout the Eighth district. The letters sent from Redwood City, his boyhood home, were very strong and a good endorsement of the young man's ability and character. The appointment by Mr. Free shows that they carried weight.

The young man will leave for Washington in about 60 days to begin his career as a naval officer. He certainly will reflect credit upon his endorers and the people of Redwood City.

Mr. Stevens is the second young man of the high school to enter the Naval Academy. The other boy was Norman McKee, son of Doctor McKee of San Francisco and Woodside. Four years ago he entered the institution, making a splendid record. Within four months of his graduation his eyes failed him and he was compelled to give up his studies. There was 150 cadets in the class and had he continued he would have graduated as fourth. Mr. McKee is now a senior at Stanford.

SUPERINTENDENT CLOUD HAS BEEN FILLING VACANCIES

County Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud was in San Francisco on Thursday seeking teachers for his rural schools. The supply of teachers is ample this year but it is difficult to secure experienced pedagogues for rural schools. Mr. Cloud was fortunate in getting Mr. Merrill E. Rogers to accept the principalship of the Pescadero grammar school. He also secured teachers for the primary grades of the San Gregorio and Montara schools. Mr. Rogers was the principal of the Tracy school for the past two years. Before that he was in the Canadian army and served four years overseas, being wounded three times. Mr. Rogers is a native of Stockton.

ANNUAL SCHOOL REPORT COMPLETED THIS WEEK

County Superintendent of Schools Roy W. Cloud has completed his annual report for the State Superintendent of Schools this week. The report is a voluminous document of forty-five pages and contains statistics relating to all of the schools of San Mateo county.

The report shows that there are 12 kindergartens with an enrollment of 535 children, 260 boys and 275 girls. The expense of maintaining these schools was $14,189.83.

There are 35 active and one suspended elementary school districts which employed 194 teachers. Of this number eleven are university graduates and 144 are graduates of normal schools. School was maintained an average of 184 days in each of the districts which will probably be one of the highest averages in the state. The average daily attendance was 5629, which provides a state appropriation for 193 teachers. The County Superintendent made 347 visits to the teachers, and the trustees of the county, was present at the schools 290 times. The record shows 49,824 volumes in the several school libraries.

The enrollment for the year was 3318 boys and 3139 girls or a total of 6457. There were more boys in every grade than girls, except in the fourth where there were 404 girls and 383 boys and in the seventh grade where the girls were 269 as against 266 boys.

During the year $466,726.20 was apportioned and $418,056.57 spent, leaving a balance on hand of $48,669.63. The largest amount of the expenditures was $275,161.23 for teachers' salaries. The elementary school tax was 50 cents and 23 districts were granted special taxes. The valuation of all elementary school property is fixed at $905,700 and the outstanding bonded indebtedness is $422,600.00.

There are five high school districts employing 58 teachers. School was maintained an average of 188 days in each district and there was an average daily attendance of $27. The state enrollment was 1740, there being 911 boys and 809 girls. The boys far outnumbered the girls in the first and second year of the high schools but the girls were evidently better stayers as they outnumbered the boys in the third and fourth years and at the graduation time there were 45 boys and 67 girls who were graduated. The total receipts of the high schools were $314,309.58 and the expenditures were $234,085.47, leaving a balance of $80,224.11. A large part of this balance, however, has since been paid as the first installment on the local high school site. The high school teachers received as salaries $116,292.95. The total valuation of all high school property is $642,858.00 and the outstanding bonded indebtedness is $194,000.

The cost of maintaining the schools for each child in average daily attendance was $51.22 for the kindergarten; $66.48 for the elementary schools and $213.34 for high schools. The gain in attendance this year was 331. This is the largest gain made during Mr. Cloud's incumbency except in 1911 when a gain of 437 pupils was made.

HIGH SCHOOL BOND ELECTION
WILL TAKE PLACE AUGUST 20

The bond election, to raise money to build the new high school will take place on August 26. Every fair-minded and progressive citizen should vote for the bonds. The present quarters of the high school are inadequate for the needs of the district. Every room is over-crowded and a new building is absolutely necessary. It must be built to meet the demands of this growing section. Pupils cannot be turned away. They must be educated. If the people will not vote for the bonds then a direct tax will have to be provided for by the trustees and this would be a big burden for the taxpayers to bear but there is no other solution of the problem. By the bond issue the burden on the taxpayer would be very light. They would not feel the extra tax.

The proposed new building will be a credit to the district. All could point to it with pride. It would be a monument to the liberality and progressiveness of the district as well as a splendid tribute to education. Let the voters come to the polls on August 26 and show their progressive spirit in providing a means for the education of boys and girls who will take the place of their elders in the years that are to come. Do not neglect this duty. Make it a point to vote on that day.

"BRIDGE THE BAY" IS DEAD

It is now pretty certain that the project to build the bridge across the bay from San Francisco to Oakland is a dead issue and will not be heard of again, at least for some time. It is therefore apropos that the people of the peninsula bend their energies and activities in providing ways and means of constructing the Dumbarton bridge which will be of great value to this section. The building of this bridge is feasible and can be constructed for a reasonable amount of money. Capital is ready to be invested in the project. All that is necessary is a little energy to push along the enterprise.

S. CALIFORNIA FARED WELL

Southern California is well pleased with the Fordney tariff insofar as it effects the products of that territory. G. H. Poyell, general manager of the California Fruit Growers' Exchange, declares that with regard to citrus fruits "The Fordney tariff bill carries exactly what we asked for. In the case of by-products, however, we are disappointed that we are not granted the protection for which we asked." Oranges carry one cent and lemons two cents a pound. Citric acid gets ten cents, and 20 cents was asked, per gallon.

The California olive growers are also pretty well satisfied with the bill. J. J. Hoey, secretary of the California Olive Association, says: "While the rates are not as high as we asked, they are so much higher than those of the Underwood tariff act that we are indeed pleased. They apparently are granting us a protection against imported olive oil of 49 cents per gallon in quantities exceeding five gallons. We asked for 60 cents. They provide 66 cents on olive oil in less than five-gallon containers."

tainers, while we asked for 70 cents. On dried ripe olives they gave us a tariff against imports of four cents per pound, while we asked for five cents. All told, we are pleased and feel that the industry will be materially assisted."

It is to be hoped that Southern California, in future elections, will compare results under the Fordney tariff bill with those following the Underwood act in which the lemon lobby of the Italian Chamber of Commerce wrote its own rates. And, having compared those results, let Southern California and the States generally, continue to vote for the party which best served its agricultural interests.

ECONOMY THE WATCHWORD

In acknowledging the truth of President Harding's statement that the condition of the Treasury is not such as to warrant the payment of billions of bonus money to the ex-soldiers, our overseas men are indulging in some bitter reflections on the conditions that caused such stupendous drains on the taxpayers. They have no trouble in recalling that while they were sweating and dying in the trenches of France, a billion dollars was being squandered in the United States on an aircraft program that had next to no effect on the outcome of the war. They know that hundreds of millions were thrown away in the construction of a vast fleet of wooden ships, never of practical value and now almost worthless. They know that hundreds of thousands of slackers earned war wages at home, while they endured suffering and death for a dollar a day, less family allotments and insurance premiums. Many returned home to find their business and jobs usurped by those same slackers.

But the veterans are discerning, and they know that the administration under which all those shames were made possible and encouraged is not the same as that in power in Washington today. Those betrayers of public trust have been turned out bag and baggage, but President Harding and the other men who have taken their places have had to shoulder the heritages left by them. It is no fault of the party now in power that the condition of the Treasury is at its present low ebb; in fact, it is the credit of that party that it did not sink to lower depths. While President Harding was a Senator, he cooperated with the other members of his party in Congress in cutting hundreds of millions of dollars from the estimates of the democratic executive, and in reducing by that amount the burden that the taxpayers have had to carry.

The overseas veterans would have a fair case of grievance if they were selected by the President to bar alone the demands of economy while Federal expenditures continue at the rate they have been going the past few years. But every man who has followed the course of events knows that Mr. Harding's opposition to the bonus is only an expression of his attitude toward every demand on the Federal Treasury. Economy is the watchword at Washington, and every ramification of the Government that can contribute to the success of that slogan is being called upon to yield its quota. Reorganization of the executive departments, coupled with a scrutiny of every item of Federal expenditure more thorough than ever before known in the country's history, is bound to produce a result that will be highly satisfactory to the taxpayers, included among whom are the men who seek the bonus.

THE BONUS MUST WAIT

Those timid creatures who fear that the postponement of the soldiers' bonus bill is going to raise hob with the republican party in coming elections are not very complimentary to the American veterans of the World War. It is an insult to every living soldier (and to the memory of every dead one) to suggest that his political views would be dictated, not by his desire for the welfare of the country for which he fought, but by a $500 tip for patriotic service. Many of the "vets" will vote the democratic ticket in coming elections, some because they were brought up that way, some because of their sectional location, and others because they honestly hold to democratic principles, even though those principles have been discarded by their party leaders. But the ex-soldier who casts a spite ballot for a democratic candidate because the bonus bill failed might as well consent to give over with the party whose criminal waste of public funds is the chief reason why the Nation is unable to grant extra compensation at this time. If the Nation could afford it, an honorarium to our soldiers might be justified, and a bonus would be a misnomer. But since the Wilson administration has well-nigh bankrupted the Nation, to insist on a bonus would be to insist on a bonus and the vast majority of the ex-service men do not belong in that category.

The republican party did not come into power on any such promise, and any party which would do so would be guilty of purchasing an election. The republican platform of 1920 distinctly said: "We hold in imperishable remembrance the valor and the patriotism of the soldiers and sailors of America who fought in the great war for human liberty, and we pledge ourselves to discharge to the fullest the obligations which a grateful Nation justly should fulfill, in appreciation of the services rendered by its defenders on sea and on land." Liberal legislation for the care of the disabled and infirm and their dependents has ever marked republican policy toward the soldier and sailor of all the wars in which our country has participated. The amounts already applied and authorized for the fiscal year 1920-21 for this (the disabled of the World War) purpose reaches the stupendous sum of $1,180,571,892. This legislation is significant of the party's purpose in generously caring for the maimed and disabled men of the recent war."

During the present Congress many additional millions have been provided for the "maimed and disabled." The platform promise is being well kept. It has the entire support of the Administration, and Secretary Mellon, in his letter to the Senate advising against the passage of the bonus bill at this time, said: "Our first concern, of course, should be to make full provision for the needs of disabled veterans. To that object the country is pledged to give without stint of its resources. It would be unfortunate in the extreme, while we are still struggling with that problem, to dissipate our resources in a sweeping plan for cash payments to able-bodied ex-soldiers and sailors."

It is one of the results of the democratic orgy of money spending that proponents of the bonus bill at least, seem to have lost all appreciation of what a billion dollars means to the country. And the bonus plan contemplates three times that amount according to the Treasury estimate. Wilson authorized, and Secretary McAdoo wrote checks for hundreds of millions with the sang froid of a Louis XIV checking out hundreds of thousands. The republican party has inherited those colossal obligations, and the American people have been pledged by their reckless former stewards to pay them. Until some practical plan has been worked out for that purpose, honorariums must wait.

BIG MEN FOR BIG JOBS

Three practical shipping men, two from New York and one from San Francisco and Los Angeles, have been selected by Chairman Lasker of the Shipping Board to operate the 1,440 steamers in the Government merchant marine fleet. The largest privately-owned fleet is said to number 107 vessels, thus the task before the Emergency Fleet Corporation is almost 14 times as great as that confronting similar private organizations. It is to be the aim of the Shipping Board to build up the Government's fleet to a paying basis before the ships are offered for sale to private operators. At the same time it will be sought to increase the shipping business of privately owned steamers so that their proprietors may be in financial shape to buy the Government ships when they are placed upon the market. Big men have been found to direct the new policies of the Government, and so far as success can be assured by that fast it is already attained.

R. R. UNSCRAMBLING

The Harding administration is to be heartily commended for its efforts to get the railroads back to normalcy. It was asserted by the democrats that the railroads could never be unscrambled after the McAdoo regime had ended, but, however difficult the task, the republicans are going at it in as practical a way as possible. It is not to be expected that the results will be entirely satisfactory to the roads, the shippers, to the government, or to security holders, for the situation is a bad one from every viewpoint. We must make the best of a bad business and profit by the experience in the future.

SAN CARLOS ITEMS
 Mrs. J. T. Bamfield and Master Jack, from Oakland are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bamfield's sister, Mrs. Fred W. Lippman.
 Miss Esther Corbett and a party of friends from San Francisco are enroute to a two weeks' sojourn at Bartlett Springs.
 At a special meeting of the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce last Thursday evening the constitution and by-laws of the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce and Civic Organizations were ratified and the San Carlos Chamber elected to become part and parcel of the peninsula organization by unanimous vote. The secretary reported that no response had been received from Dr. F. Holmes Smith, county health officer, respecting the Chamber's request for the appointment of a deputy health officer for San Carlos. The action of a previous meeting, to leave the appointment of a board of fifteen directors to the president and secretary was rescinded and a motion was adopted to elect the board at the regular meeting next Thursday evening. The petition to electrify the Southern Pacific lines was presented to those present out to sign, and J. J. Johnson and H. Schomer were appointed as a committee to circulate the petition in San Carlos. C. E. Haydock, Geo. H. Andrus and Chas. B. Marvin were appointed a committee to draft a set of by-laws and report at the next meeting. Rupert C. Johnson and Fred H. Drake were appointed a committee to arrange for marking the names of the streets on the curbing at each intersection and to arrange a system for the numbering of the houses. At the suggestion of traffic Officer Quinn, it was decided to place "no parking" signs within 100 feet of the state highway on Cypress avenue.

 As the next meeting of the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce and Civic Organizations to be held at the Community House, Palo Alto, at 8 p. m., Friday, August 5th, is to be an open meeting. Secretary Imboden urges that each Chamber bring a big delegation and swell the crowd. At the Palo Alto meeting of the Bureau the following committees will render their reports: Transportation Committee, the Dumbarton Bridge, the Highway Committee and the Finance Committee. In addition there will be addresses by Prof. Cottrell of Stanford University and Dr. Rastall of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. Those desiring to attend from San Carlos will please notify the secretary and he will arrange for seats in one of the machines going from here.

Miss Martha Malloy of Oakland is visiting at the home of Mrs. Lester A. Conklin.
 Mrs. Nelson B. Lansing, nee Florence McLean and her little daughter Roberta, from Honolulu are guests at the Hull-Shields home. Mrs. Lansing expects to be in California for several months visiting with her numerous friends and relatives.
 Miss Dora Straughen of Alameda is visiting at the home of Mrs. Chas. McNeal on Cherry street.
 Through the splendid foresight of the late Nathaniel J. Brittan, who was the first postmaster at San Carlos, this little city enjoys the unique and convenient postal facilities which will doubtless become universal after the great transportation systems of the country are taken over and operated by the government. That of having the central or principal post office located in the railroad station building or a suitable annex where the distribution and delivery of mail should naturally begin. The early commuters particularly appreciate this fine system whereby they find their morning mail and daily paper awaiting them in their box at the depot post office.

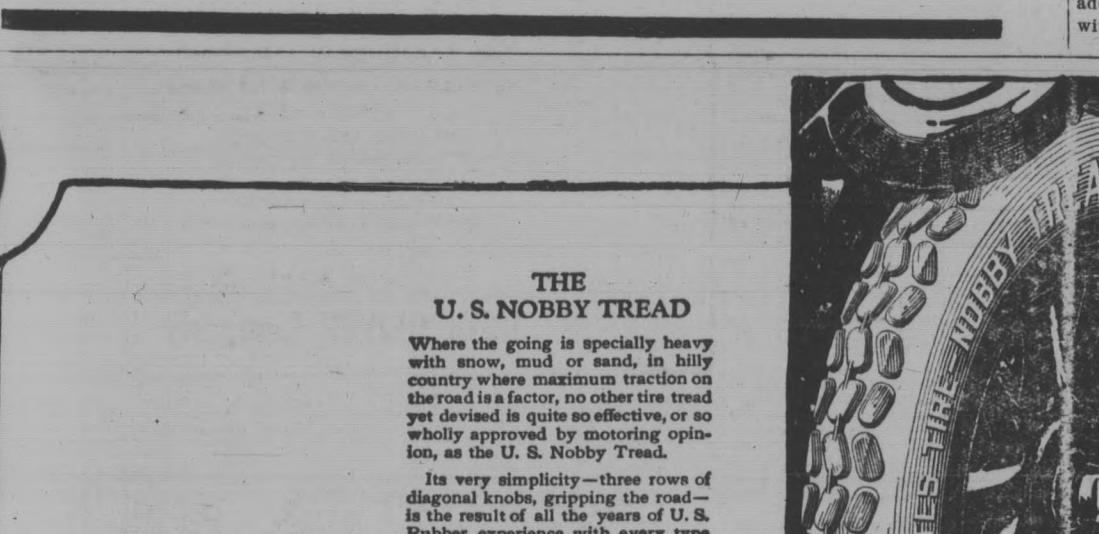

Miss Thelma Johanson of San Francisco is visiting at the home of Mrs. O. C. Larsen at 728 Walnut street.
 Through the kindness of F. W. Otto, manager of the Underfoot Typewriter agency and also first vice president of the San Carlos Chamber of Commerce, the secretary of the local Chamber is enjoying the use of an up-to-date machine in handling the correspondence of the organization.
 This community is to be congratulated and should be considered exceedingly fortunate that the board of school trustees have been able to secure the services of Miss Eleanor Ebert as our principal and teacher for the next term of school. Miss Ebert has had several years experience and comes to us highly recommended as having splendid natural aptitude for the work as teacher and with a pleasing personality. It is expected that she will prove a very agreeable successor to Miss Gertrude Hind who served us for so many years with such fine results.

 Everyone is loud in their praise of the Redwood City Fire Department for their prompt response and quick action when they were called to help put out a grass fire which threatened the destruction of a number of planes at the Varney plant and a number of stacks of hay belonging to Asa E. Hull. Which would have meant several thousand dollars loss.
 The Misses Katherine and Alice Boyd returned last Friday from a fortnight's visit at the home of their uncle, Joe Corbett on his fruit ranch near Napa.
 Mr. R. L. Simpson who is on a two weeks' vacation from his position in San Francisco is employing his time in the improvement of the grounds around his new home which is being built by Contractor Zimmerman. The Simpsons expect to move into their new home about August 1.
 Miss Ora Hooker, the principal of one of the primary schools in the city of Angeles, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Hooker Smith at 202 Cypress avenue.
 Mr. H. Rothold of Berkeley came over last Friday to visit his old South Omaha friend, Mr. D. E. Sizer at 632 State Highway. Sizer and Rothold were business associates in the Windy State for many years.
 Mrs. Wm. E. Fisher, nee Marial Clark, who with her husband and a party of friends have just returned from an outing in the Lake Tahoe region was a week end visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. P. Hurlbut at 620 Walnut street.
 J. A. Lockie Jr., who has been visiting with his parents at the Hurlbut Apartments, left last Tuesday to take a position at Santa Barbara. After two weeks' vacation visiting in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego, Geo. McDonald has returned to his position in the general offices of the Southern Pacific company in San Francisco.
 Accompanied by her friend, Mrs. Ida Houghteling of Berkeley, Mrs. Jack Cowgill will leave for Medford, Oregon, on the Santa Limited next Wednesday where they go to visit with Mrs. Cowgill's relatives in the Rogue River Valley and other sections in Southern Oregon. While there they will go by auto to Crater Lake, and also make a auto trip to Coquille, Coos county, where Mrs. Cowgill's brother, Mr. Pike Maury has his home. Little Miss Marylyn, who has been visiting for several weeks in the Webfoot state will return with her mother in time for the commencement of school.

TUBES
BECAUSE tubes cost comparatively little as compared with tires, too little attention is being paid them by a good many motorists.
 You can almost tell what a tire dealer stands for by the kind of tubes he carries.
 Let them be known—let them have a reputation behind them—and you can be pretty sure that he is contributing something to that reputation.
 We select our tubes as carefully as we do our tires. G & J Tubes to go with G & J Tires—each with a reputation of more than a quarter of a century behind them.

THE U. S. NOBBY TREAD
 Where the going is specially heavy with snow, mud or sand, in hilly country where maximum traction on the road is a factor, no other tire tread yet devised is quite so effective, or so wholly approved by motoring opinion, as the U. S. Nobby Tread.
 Its very simplicity—three rows of diagonal knobs, gripping the road—is the result of all the years of U. S. Rubber experience with every type of road the world over.

If every one listened to experience, how much they'd save
 STOP and talk to the next man you see with U. S. Tires on his car. Ask him why.
 Most likely you'll hear an interesting story about his tire experiments—before the answer was found. Money wasted. Promises unkept. Trouble on the road—humorous to every one except the man who went through it.
 Finally U. S. Tires. And U. S. Tires ever since.
 Perhaps it's the experience of U. S. Tire buyers that makes them more emphatic in their preference than ever this year.
 When these men have tried most everything by the way of "staggering bargains," "hurry discounts," "discontinued lines at less" and so forth they know what not to get.

 They want a fresh, live tire. With a good reputation. That's everything it says it is. With the people behind it who back it up.
 There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Your local U. S. Dealer is drawing upon them continually to keep his stocks sized up, complete—to give you service. Whenever he gets one or a hundred tires from a U. S. Factory Branch, they are newly made this season's tires.
 Sold to you at a net price. Full values. Square-dealing. A reputable maker. A reputable dealer. The whole transaction as befits the leadership of the oldest and largest rubber organization in the world.

MENLO PARK NEWS OF ALL SORTS

The Fenton property on the corner of the highway and Oak Grove avenue, formerly the headquarters of the quartermaster's department of Camp Fremont, was sold this week to parties from Idaho. They are to construct work shops on the holdings at once.

A fire started at Cooley's Landing Runnymede, Thursday evening, that threatened the chicken colony. Acres of dry grass was burned, a portion of the fertilizing establishment of Harry Morcy Jr., was destroyed. Runnymede is not in the Menlo Park Fire district but nevertheless the department responded to the call and soon had the conflagration under control.

Mrs. Cora Parker arrived home on Thursday from a week-end stay at Pebble Beach, Monterey. She enjoyed the seventeen-mile ride and saw the other interesting sights of that delightful place.

Mrs. George Nunn, her son, Lionel, and daughter, Nancy, and Mrs. James Logan, returned from a ten days vacation spent at Monte Rio on Monday last.

Ira Merrill, who recently sold his property at Ravenswood to the government for the base hospital, leaves tomorrow in his touring car of Eureka, Humboldt county, to spend three months with relatives. After that he expects to reside here.

William Meyer, of the Safety Electric shop, has secured the agency for a new moving machine of the latest power. It is 60 grade and the price is $750. The machine may be installed in private residences.

Mrs. William Meyer and family have returned from a visit with Mrs. Meyer's mother at Los Molinos.

The daily vacation bible school at the Presbyterian church closed yesterday after a five weeks' successful session. A large number from here and Palo Alto attended the school.

W. E. Dale has written to friends here from Liverpool where he was met by his father who escorted him to his home not far from that place. Mr. Dale writes that he is having a delightful time at his boyhood home and that he is up to date on the news of the world since he left there to come to America. Mr. Dale will not return to Menlo Park until late in the fall.

Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald and her pretty daughter, Miss Catherine Nash, and her son, Samuel, will leave for San Francisco next week to permanently reside. They have taken a house in the Richmond district. They carry with them the best wishes of the people of Menlo Park where they have resided so long.

Miss Florence Gilbert entertained a few of her friends at her home in Menlo Park last Saturday. Pleasant conversation, music and games were indulged in and delicious refreshments closed a delightful afternoon. Those present were the Misses Florence Gilbert, Mildred Fox, Lydia Butlerfield, Ruth Dossie and Lova Carter.

Mrs. George Morlock and her three pretty children are at the home of her brother, George Casey at Palo Alto, enjoying a short vacation. The Morlocks have an attractive home at 279 24th avenue, San Francisco.

The Native Daughters will give a dance on Saturday evening, August 6 in Native Sons' Hall. This will be the second annual ball to be given by the society and the members are anticipating an enjoyable time. An orchestra from San Francisco will furnish jazz music.

There will be a registration of 300 students at St. Patrick's Seminary next semester. The institution will be overcrowded and in order to meet the big attendance the management has leased the Coleman mansion, close by, for a period of two years, to be used as a dormitory. The building is owned by the Hibetana Bank who secured it some years ago on the foreclosure of a mortgage. A large refectory is also being erected on the seminary grounds. The foundation for the junior college near Los Altos is being put down and active work on the institution begun. It is to be completed in two years so that the crowded condition here will be relieved. When finished the building will cost over a half million dollars.

RUNNYMEDE ITEMS

The committee from the Runnymede Woman's Club appointed to plan the annual Runnymede fair met with Charles Weeks this week at the home of Mrs. F. C. Nickerson, when arrangements were begun which will make the 1921 fair the biggest the colony has ever had. The dates have been set for September 10 and 11.

The original plan was to hold the fair in the Ravenswood grove, but a delay in getting the buildings under construction in time to have them under cover makes it impractical to attempt holding it there this year. It will be held instead at the Weeks ranch.

The club is planning a fancy work sale, also a sale of preserves and jellies and it is planned to make Saturday a big market day to be advertised all over the peninsula. Each man in Runnymede wishes to do so may have a booth for the sale of his vegetables or berries, or whatever he may have.

Valuable purses for displays and work will also be given and announced later.

The Woman's Club has the arrangements in charge, and after their next regular meeting announcement will be made to the committee.

There will be two speakers each afternoon and on Saturday evening a free outdoor program will be given followed by dancing.

On Sunday evening a musical program appropriate to the day will be given. Charles Weeks will serve a chicken dinner at noon both days. The Woman's Club will have ice cream and cake for sale at all times.

An invitation is extended to any of the merchants of Palo Alto to have any demonstration or advertisement they wish on the grounds.
